Cards

Using mundane moments for Godly purpose in your marriage.

Prayer is the single BEST thing you can do for your marriage. God is the one who can ultimately change your hearts and your marriage for the better, so inviting him in to do those things is the best thing you can do for your marriage. Print and cut out these cards and place them around your home. When you are sitting in these areas of your home doing chores and daily life, take these mundane moments and pray for these things over your home and over your marriage.
